Disability Insurance – Protect your Income
The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia
Safeguard a portion of your salary with disability insurance

- Helps you protect a portion of your income when you are unable to work due to a covered sickness or injury

- Enrolling in coverage is easy and benefit payments can be used to cover everyday expenses if you so choose.

- Direct disbursements allow you to use the money on whatever you like
Can it happen to you?

Anyone who depends on their income, even if they are young and healthy, may need disability insurance. The risk of suffering a disabling illness or accident may be more likely than you realize. From pregnancy and back surgery to cancer and musculoskeletal disorders, disability insurance protects you from common health issues.

Just over 1-in-4 of today’s 20 year-olds will likely become disabled before reaching age 67\(^1\)

3 out of 10 American adults indicate they can’t pay an unexpected $400 bill without having to carry a balance on their credit card or borrow money from friends, family, or the bank.\(^2\)
Options can be limited without disability coverage

- Borrow money from family or friends
- Sell property or investment assets
- Use savings, credit cards or home equity
- Move from your home to reduce expenses
- Social Security Disability Benefits, but only if strict eligibility requirements are met

If you work in a state with state-mandated disability or paid medical leave benefits (“State Benefits”), you should carefully consider whether to enroll for this coverage. In California, Connecticut, Hawaii, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Puerto Rico, Rhode Island, Washington (and Oregon starting 9/3/23, and Colorado starting 1/1/24), if eligible, you must apply for State Benefits. Your STD benefit will be reduced by State Benefits or other government benefits that apply. Depending on your compensation, the amount of the State Benefit, and other factors, you may only receive the minimum weekly benefit. Please consider, based on your individual circumstances, whether you need additional coverage beyond the State Benefit.

Footnotes and disclosures

Like most group benefit programs, benefit programs offered by MetLife contain certain exclusions, exceptions, waiting periods, reductions, limitations, and terms for keeping them in force. Ask your MetLife group representative for costs and complete details.

For policies issued in NY, MetLife Disability Income Insurance policies provide disability income insurance only. They do not provide basic hospital, basic medical or major medical insurance as defined by the New York State Insurance Department. The expected benefit ratio for these policies is at least 50%. This ratio is the portion of future premiums that MetLife expects to return as benefits when averaged over all people with the applicable policy.
