

Want to explore a wider range of investment choices?

Take a look at the Schwab Personal Choice Retirement Account® (PCRA) – designed for the avid and knowledgeable investor who values the flexibility and increased diversification that an expanded selection of investments offers.

Invest for the future on your terms

A Schwab PCRA is a self-directed brokerage account that can:

- Integrate seamlessly into your retirement plan
- Supplement your core investment lineup

That means in addition to the choices offered by your employer’s retirement plan, the PCRA lets you invest in a wider range of investments.

The PCRA was designed for the hands-on investor who:

- Seeks an enhanced role in monitoring and managing their retirement savings
- Understands the risk/reward scenario resulting from an aggressive investment stance
- Is aware that investment values will fluctuate so that when redeemed, they may be worth more or less than their original cost, and that investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal

Access mutual funds that cover the spectrum

Schwab provides convenient access at any time to thousands of mutual funds from well-known mutual fund companies, including the following:

- American Century
- Fidelity
- Invesco
- Janus

Through Schwab’s Mutual Fund Marketplace®, you have easy access to mutual funds in all asset categories – from aggressive international funds and index funds to income-generating bond funds and more.

Bear in mind, past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate and there is no assurance that the objective of any funds will be achieved. Mutual fund shares are redeemable at the then-current net asset value.

Investors should consider carefully information contained in the prospectus, including investment objectives, risks, trading policies, charges and expenses. You can request a prospectus by calling Schwab at 1.888.393.7272 or visiting schwab.com. Please read the prospectus(es) carefully before investing.

Providing you with a range of investment choices

The PCRA investment choices can include:

- More than 8,500 mutual funds from 630 of the nation's most popular fund companies
- Money market funds¹

¹ An investment in a money market fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other government agency. Although money market funds seek to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in a money market fund.

Looking ahead

Here is helpful information we've gathered to help you plan ahead.

Funding your PCRA account

- Account contributions. Your employer determines which contributions — such as voluntary, employer's basic or employer's matching — are eligible for the PCRA. You then direct the contributions to either your Corebridge retirement services or PCRA account.
- Initial deposit. There is no minimum initial deposit requirement for a PCRA account. Initial and subsequent minimums for mutual fund investments always apply.
- Investment instructions. Funds you deposit in — or transfer to — your PCRA will be invested in the sweep vehicle selected by your plan sponsor until you provide Schwab with your investment instructions.
- Transfers. Generally, you may transfer balances or portions thereof, from other plan investment selections into your PCRA, provided they are from contribution sources approved for PCRA investments by your plan and Corebridge. Some restrictions may apply to transferring assets from fixed-interest options that have an annual withdrawal restriction or are considered under an equity wash provision. Simply call Corebridge at 1.800.448.2542.

Saving for retirement with your PCRA

Keep in mind that your PCRA is an additional investment option in your company retirement savings plan. Only funds under your employer's retirement plan may be invested in your PCRA. Corebridge may require participants to satisfy a minimum balance in the core plan investment options and enforce a maximum allocation percentage to PCRA.

Availability of retirement funds is regulated by the Internal Revenue Code, other regulations, laws and your company's plan document. For information about withdrawing funds from your PCRA, speak with your Human Resources representative or call Corebridge.

Noting fees

The Schwab PCRA may be subject to a $50 annual fee.

Trading in your account

Once your PCRA is open and funded, it works much like a regular brokerage account. When you're ready to buy or sell investments, simply call Schwab and speak with a representative or use one of the convenient electronic trading tools, such as the Schwab website, TeleBroker or Schwab by Phone. You'll receive a confirmation of each transaction. Monthly PCRA statements are provided by Schwab. Active investors will also receive PCRA information on their quarterly statement.

Withdrawing funds

Money withdrawn from your PCRA must meet the requirements of your company's retirement plan and applicable IRS rules. Income taxes are payable upon withdrawal. Federal restrictions and a 10% federal early withdrawal tax penalty may apply to withdrawals prior to age 59½.

Taking a loan

Loans are not available from your PCRA. You can transfer amounts from your PCRA to other investments in your Corebridge retirement services account to take a loan.

Considering fund requirements

Some funds may have minimum funding requirements. Please see the individual fund prospectus for more information.

Preparing for life changes

When you are no longer with your employer or retire, consider one of these retirement income options for your PCRA balance:

- Annuitization (converting an annuity investment into a series of periodical income payments), systematic withdrawals or lump-sum cash payment
- A rollover IRA or tax-deferred annuity from The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company (VALIC)

Income taxes are payable upon withdrawal. Federal restrictions and a 10% federal early withdrawal tax penalty may apply to withdrawals prior to age 59½.
